

Suggested Student Chrome Apps

NOTE: Many of the websites and services that have Apps, do not require them to use them. You can use Google Drive regardless of whether or not you have the App.

Audio Cutter	Edit audio files.
Cramberry	Create online flashcards.
Daum Equation Editor	Free, online tool for quickly writing equations that you can save a text or images to use in documents.
Desmos Graphing Calculator	Free. online graphing calculator.
Diigo	Annotate, archive and bookmark web pages.
EasyBib Tools	Cite websites and receive information as the credibility of the site you are using.
Gmail Offline	Read, respond, and create mail messages while offline.
Khan Academy	Watch, practice, learn almost anything for free. Videos help reinforce concepts.
Kindle Cloud Reader	Access your Kindle books on your browser.
PDF to Word Converter	Easily convert pdf files to Word format.
PicMonkey	Free photo editor with collage, touch-up, fonts, and effects.
Pixlr Editor	A full featured in browser photo editor.
Read Later Fast	Save webpages to read later offline.
StudyStack	Flashcards, hangman, crosswords and other activities to help make memorization fun.
Techsmith Snagit	Screen capture, screen recording, and image editing.
Useful Periodic Table	A reference app for chemistry students. Useful Periodic Table contains the information high school chemistry students need. The app also includes some practice quiz activities.
WeVideo	Create video projects and collaborate with others right within Google Drive.
Word Online	Create, edit, and share Word documents.
Workflowy	Create lists and notes to track your “to do” tasks.